Policy of the Association.

"It has been, and I hope it will continue to be, the effort of this association to be, the effort of this association to be to industrate the entire District. This policy is illustrated by the numerous resolutions which have been favorably considered and adopted by, this organization within the last two years.

expressing to you our high appreciation of the efforts you have personally made to secure from Congress the amount neces-sary to gratify some of the actual needs of this community, and as these efforts have been crowned with signal success, although perhaps not equal to your expectations and desires, we tender to you our sincere thanks. You will not feel, Mr. President, that you have been invited here to enable us to eulogize you. I have too much respect for the dignity of your office and my admiration of your virility is too great to justify me in making such an effort." Mr. Macfarland's Response. In replying to Mr. Shoemaker Mr. Mac-

"Congress did more for the District at its last session than in any former year since, in 1878, it gave us 'the constitution of the District of Columbia.' It was due partly, no doubt, to the new devotion of the nation to its capital, the new conscious. ness of responsibility and duty toward the District in Congress so admirably brought District in Congress so admirably brought out on centennial day, at the opening of the session. But it was also due, without doubt, to the practical unanimity with which the Commissioners of the District, its official representatives, were supported by its citizens in their presentation of its needs and of measures to meet them before Congress. All the organizations of citizens that constitute a unique and important feature of District life contributed to this support. The result shows what can be accomplished when the Commissioners are thus supported and when Congress hears the District speak practically with hears the District speak practically with one voice." Both addresses were frequently inter rupted with applause.

Remarks were also made by Mr. Louis

FAITH CURIST ARRESTED.

He Allowed His Child to Die Without Medical Attention. A dispatch to the New York Herald from White Plains, N. Y., yesterday says: Last night Deputy Sheriff Doyle arrested J. Luther Pierson, a faith curist, at his home, at Walhalla, on a bench warrant signed by County Judge Lent. Pierson is charged with having neglected to summon a doctor to attend his two-year-old girl, who died without medical attendance of carespondent of the Standard, wiring yester- tarrhal pneumonia at Pierson's home on February 15 last.

Pierson had been indicted on March 19 on a charge of willfully contributing to the child's death by refusing to allow a doctor to attend her in her last illness. Pierson to attend her in her last illness. Pierson pleaded not guilty to the indictment, and when told he would have to go to jail he informed the court that his wife was lying very ill. Judge Lent directed him to take a doctor at once to his home, and paroled him until 2 o'clock this afternoon. When arraigned in court this afternoon the faith curist told Judge Lent that early this morning he had become the father of a fine boy, and that the mother and child were doing excellently and that he had allowed no doctor or nurses to be present. Judge Lent became very angry and held Pierson in $1,000 to answer the indictment, telling him as he left the court room to get a doctor for his wife, and that if anything happened to her without her being thing happened to her without her being attended by a doctor he would be held to the strictest account.

The faith curist told several reporters after he had given bail that he was a member of the Christian Catholic Church of Chicago, which city is his home. At present he is employed as a clerk in the department of car accounts in the Grand

District Booklet on request 1. P. OOPE.
